Editorial Notes.

The 1913 edition of "The Official Catholic Directory" is presented to its patrons somewhat late in the season but the delay could not be avoided. Owing to the immensity of the undertaking months and months elapse after the first proofs begin to pour into the Directory office. The statistics are revised and revised until the matter in the final proofs is as perfect as the Chancery officials can make it. Here, too, it may be apropos to state that some of the final proofs of the most important Dioceses in the United States did not reach the Directory publishers until the middle of February, and as it takes fully a month to complete the publication after the final proofs are received, it will be apparent to patrons that "The Official Catholic Directory" could not be published until the middle of March.

Then, also, it must be considered that "The Official Catholic Directory" contains not only a complete directory of the United States and its foreign possessions, but includes also a directory of Canada and Newfoundland, a directory of Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales and ecclesiastical information of other foreign countries. This fact is sometimes lost sight of and it may be well to state that no other Catholic Directory includes complete reports of so many nations as does "The Official Catholic Directory."

The 1913 issue was gone over and revised page for page. No expense was spared and the active work on the 1913 volume was commenced the middle of June, 1912.

One of the most interesting features of the Directory is the General Summary which appears on the last two pages of the United States section. This table was revised line for line with more than ordinary care and at a glance reveals the statistics of the Catholic Church in the United States. The tabulated figures will give food for thought.

The chief item, of course, is the Catholic population figure. The number of Catholics is reported as 15,154,158, showing an increase of only 138,589 over the figures of the 1912 volume. This increase, namely 138,589, will not satisfy many but as a matter of information it must be stated that the Catholic population figures are printed in the Directory just as they are furnished by the Diocesan officials. Perhaps, in fairness, however, it ought to be mentioned that in thirty-five Dioceses no changes were made in the population figures. In six cases where changes were made the revision was downward, one Diocese reducing its population figure by 25,000, another by 12,000, while a third cut off 10,620. The three other reductions were only slight. It is impossible in all districts to take an annual census and in numerous Dioceses the census is taken every five years. In two or three American Dioceses the figures are changed only every ten years.

Having worked on the last eight Directories, the editor can, without fear, say that the population item as given in the Directory is a very conservative figure, and in no way exaggerated or over-estimated. In fact, statisticians would be perfectly safe in adding 10 per cent to the total number, for 10 per cent could be added to the 15,154,158, and no fault found. This 10 per cent could be charged to "floating" population.

Various features were added to the 1913 volume, and one which has been suggested time and again, will surely meet with approval. The addition is a table (page 854), giving the names of the Catholic Chaplains in the United States Army and Navy. Heretofore it has been necessary to search through the entire Clergy list to find the names of the Army or Navy Chaplains. This year's table not only shows the names and locations but also the rank of the Reverend Chaplains.

The list of the Roman Pontiffs (pages 10-11) was revised and the tables show that there have been 259 occupants of the Papal throne. The revision was made in accordance with the latest information obtainable.

The Directory publishers endeavored to secure from each Diocese the number of infant and adult baptisms, and in all cases where figures were supplied by the Chancery offices, the items were inserted in the recapitulation of the Dioceses concerned.

Blanks soliciting information were sent out by the tens of thousands and in each case the publishers requested that the recipient furnish the required information and return same to the proper Chancery office or to the Bishop's house. The plan was perfect, but of course, the statistics will never be perfect until each and every blank is promptly returned to the Chancery officials. Stamped envelopes were included in every case but some of the blanks were not returned.

Several important changes were made in the style of editions published and beginning with the 1913 book, the Canadian pages will be found only in the complete edition. By complete edition is meant the volume which contains the United States section, the Canadian Dioceses, Cuba, Newfoundland, Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales and other foreign countries. The United States and Canada edition has been discontinued and in its place will be issued the United States edition, containing only the Diocesan reports of this country and the reports of the foreign possessions of the United States. There will be three styles: the complete edition, bound in leather; the complete edition, in paper covers; and the United States edition, paper bound.

It would not be just to allow the Directory to make its appearance without saying a word in behalf of the advertisers in the present volume. The advertisers in the 1913 Directory by the very fact that they are advertising, show that they seek the patronage of the Reverend Clergy, the Religious Orders and the various communities of Sisters. The publishers can and do assure Directory patrons that only the most responsible and the most representative firms are admitted to the advertising pages of this publication. It would be to the mutual advantage of all concerned if advertisers in Catholic publications were told when and where their advertisements were seen. This plea not only refers to the advertisers in "The Official Catholic Directory," but refers, also, to the advertisers in all Catholic papers and periodicals, whether weeklies, monthlies or annuals.

The publishers must, furthermore, extend their sincere thanks to the officials of the various Chancery offices and to those who have aided them in their arduous task of compiling this 1,500-page Directory. Without the co-operation and active assistance of the Diocesan authorities the publishing of this Directory would be impossible.

PART I.

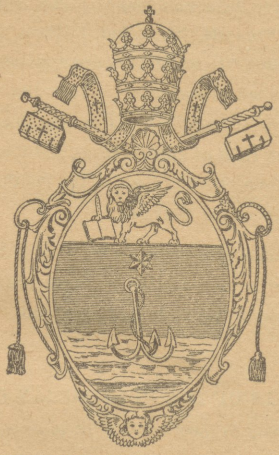
Hierarchy of the Catholic Church.

The Catholic Hierarchy, or the governing body of the Catholic Church, consists of His oliness the Supreme Pontiff, assisted by the Sacred College of Cardinals and by several acred Congregations, or permanent ecclesiastical committees, of which the Cardinals are le chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Delegates, icars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and other Prelates.



HIS HOLINESS THE POPE

Bishop of Rome and Vicar of Jesus Christ,
Successor of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles,
Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church,
Patriarch of the West, Primate of Italy,
Archbishop and Metropolitan of the Roman Province,
Sovereign of the Temporal Dominions of the Holy Roman Church.

POPE PIUS X.,

JOSEPH SARTO,

Supreme Pontiff now Gloriously Reigning.

The two hundred and fifty-eighth successor of St. Peter, was born at Riese, in the Diocese reviso, June 2, 1835; ordained Priest, September 18, 1858; consecrated Bishop of Mantua, ember 10, 1884; created and proclaimed Cardinal and Patriarch of Venice, June 15, 1893; ted Pope, August 4, crowned August 9, 1903.

His Holiness retains the Prefectship of the Congregation of the Holy Roman and Univer- Inquisition or Holy Office, of the Consistorial Congregation; the Pro-rectorship of the rch and Chapter of SS. Celsus and Julianus, of the whole Order of St. Benedict, of the er of Friars Minor, of the Archconfraternities of the Via Crucis, of the Lovers of Christ Mary, of the Sacred Stigmata of St. Francis, of the Order of Preachers.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. They are advisers of the Supreme Pontiff, and at the death of the Pontiff they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy; with very few exceptions the Cardinal Priests are Archbishops or Bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally Priests. The Sacred College of Cardinals, when complete, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests and 14 Cardinal Deacons.

The Cardinal Bishops occupy the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are Ostia and Velletri, Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Frascati, Palestrina, Sabina. The Cardinal Priests take their title from the "Titular Churches" to which they are appointed, the Cardinal Deacons are appointed to other Churches called "Deaconies." The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon is First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the Administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

(The 'creation' of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years the 'publication and proclamation.' The Cardinal is then said to be 'reserved in petto,' and when proclaimed, he takes the precedence according to date of creation.)

*) The population of the Diocese of St. Paul being largely rural, many Congregations cannot easily organize parochial schools; nor in such congregations is there a very special need of parochial schools, as teachers in the State or District Schools usually are Catholics, and due provision is otherwise made for the religious instruction of the pupils.
